Host City

Shanghai serves as the largest base of Chinese industrial technology. The important seaport and China's largest commercial and financial center, Shanghai, draws the attention of the whole world.

In addition to its modernization, the city's multicultural flair endows it with a unique glamour. Here, one finds the perfect blend of cultures, the modern and the traditional, and the western and the oriental. New skyscrapers and old Shikumen together draw the skyline of the city. Western customs and Chinese traditions intertwined and formed the city's culture, making a visitor's stay memorable.

Shanghai has two international airports: Pudong International and Hongqiao International, the former of which has the third highest traffic in China. Pudong is the main airport.
